KIDS & MONEY

Adam's parents have told him that they need to be extra careful with how they spend their money since they recently had several big expenses. Adam asked them to buy him some new sports equipment for the summer. His parents told him they can only spend $50 total.

Can you help Adam decide what to buy?

1. Does Adam have enough money to buy baseballs, a baseball mitt and a baseball helmet?

1. Yes
2. No

2. If Adam buys a basketball and a football, how much money will he have left?

1. $4
2. $10
3. $6
4. $5

3. If Adam adds $15 of his own savings to the money his parents give him for new sports equipment, will he have enough to buy a new basketball, a soccer ball and a football?

1. Yes
2. No

Thinking Cap: Do you think Adam will be more careful about asking his parents for money after they shared that they need to be extra careful now?
